

Nominations sought for California Kiwifruit Administrative Committee

March 15, 2013

The California Kiwifruit Administrative Committee will conduct its annual election of kiwifruit growers to serve as members and alternates for a two-year term from August 1, 2013 to July 31, 2015. Nominations are being sought from the three districts in California, encompassing all of the production areas.

Nomination forms will be mailed to growers in each district on April 1st and should be returned to the Kiwifruit Administrative Committee postmarked no later than April 15, 2013. Eligible candidates include kiwifruit growers who produce kiwifruit for the fresh market, and employees of growers. Ballots will be mailed to all growers in early May.

The Kiwifruit Administrative Committee is the official body that administers the federal marketing order for kiwifruit. The Kiwifruit Administrative Committee has made a commitment to enhance the diversity of the organization and is working in partnership with the U.S. Department of Agriculture to encourage eligible women, minorities, people with disabilities, organic or non-conventional producers, small businesses, and individuals who have never served on the Committee to serve as committee members or alternates. All eligible candidates are encouraged to participate in the nomination process.

If you have any questions please call the Kiwifruit Administrative Committee office at (916) 441-0678. Nomination forms are available at the office at 1521 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, or via email at calkiwi@agamsi.com.
